

Triumph of Faberio

Faberio arrived by royal barge late last night. Preparations are underway for a fabulous Triumph on Saturday! The Centaur Anarchist, Vercingetorix, being transported to Myrinath under heavy guard along with several other wild and barbarous creatures from the North. These monstrous enemies of the Empire will be paraded through the streets of Myrinath, concluding at the Colosseum Saturday evening.

Fabulous Faberio

Sources tell us that Vercingetorix has been tried in absentia and been found guilty of collusion against the Empire, conspiracy to commit armed insurrection against the Empire, tax evasion, and fourteen other counts of treason against the Empire. The Anarchist will have the opportunity to plead for his life before the Imperial Consort Faberio. Faberio is said to be a genial person who believes in second chances, but the chief strangler at the Temple of Jupiter will be in attendance at the event which is never a good sign.

Booths displaying the native handicrafts of the inhabitants of the Northern Valley will be set up at the market. Proceeds from the sales will be donated to Orbona's House of Little Lost Children.

Wedding Bells?

Will Consort Faberio soon be Mr. Empress Vencia Sailatar? Sources tell us at the Mirror that Faberio was recently seen wearing a white cloak - perhaps THE white cloak? The Dragon Cloak of House Sailatar - symbol of the Imperial line for time immemorial. The Dragon Cloak was gifted to the Sailatars by the Dragon Kurokami when the house was established and would be a sensational addition to Faberio's already impressive wardrobe, and just in time for winter, too!

Vencia & Faberio

Monster Rally

One night only - the biggest, hugest, giganticest extravaganza Myrinath has ever seen! It will change your life forever! Not one, not two, but THREE - that's right THREE - back-to-back matches, each one bloodier than the last! Goblins, check! Hobgoblins, check! Centaurs chariot races? Bugbears? You name it! Will the victors earn Imperial favor? You Decide! Plus the Beast from the East, Mignix the Giant! Plus the astounding, the unbelievable, the never before seen Bulette of the Northern Valley will stomp, squish, maul, chew, and destroy everything in its path! One night only! ONE NIGHT ONLY!! This Saturday, at the Colosseum!

